

EQUALITY DUTY STATEMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

The Equality Act 2010, which replaces the previous anti-discrimination laws with a single act, came into force on 1st October 2010. A key measure in the Act is the public sector Equality Duty, which came into force on 5th April 2011. The Equality Duty ensures that all public bodies play their part in making society fairer by tackling discrimination and providing equality of opportunity for all.

We have carefully considered and analysed the impact of this policy on equality and the possible implications for pupils with protected characteristics, as part of our commitment to meet the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) requirement to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations.

The aims of the Equality Duty are to;

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

2. PROTECTED CHARACTERISTICS

- Age
- Disability
- Sex
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation
- Race
- Gender reassignment

2.1 The Equality Act makes it unlawful to treat someone differently, either through direct and indirect discrimination, harassment and victimisation or by failing to make a reasonable adjustment for a disabled person.

2.2 Age applies to a school as an employer, but not with regard to the treatment of pupils and prospective pupils.

3. ALL PUBLIC SECTOR BODY REQUIREMENTS

- Publish relevant information regarding our compliance with the duty. School can decide what information is relevant and can reference other information, either ours or other publically available data, without the need to reproduce it. This information must be published annually.

- Set and publish equality objectives. Again, these are to be decided by school. The objectives must be reviewed every four years.
